

Geography home learning challenges

Physical	Study and log the weather	Make your own weather forecast video	Identify and describe climate zones	Write a diary of a water droplet's journey from a cloud to the sea	Research the River Thames	Compare the River Thames to the River Nile
	Make a volcano explode	Make a survival guide for an earthquake	Draw/ make a water cycle	Draw a biome with flora and fauna	Make a advert for a beach	Use an atlas/ globe to find countries
Human	List as many different settlements as you can	What jobs do people in your family do?	What jobs might people do in a different country to us? Why?	Make a poster for your local park encouraging people to look after it	Sort man-made objects in to colours	Write a letter to someone living in the Mediterranean wishing them well and safety
	Prove to my how/ why Thames Water is SO important	Make a leaflet for London- why is it so great?	Make an A-Z list of food distributions companies	Make London landmarks!	Design your own landmark for London	Find out and learn what symbols represent on a map
Eco	Write an argument for and against the 10p charge for plastic bags	Build a model using recycled materials	Think of how to save energy in your house	Research life under the sea- how can we help protect them?	Research life on land- how can we protect them?	Make a 'do not litter' poster
Nature	Make a home for a hedgehog/ bird/ minibeast	Make a sun catcher	Design a house for you to live in made out of all natural resources	How many trees can you see from your window? Do you know their names?	Write your own children's book about an animal exploring the world	Make home-made bird feed
World	Make a list of all of the countries you have been to	Make a bucket list of countries you want to go to!	Study and learn the flags of the world	Learn all of the continents	Alphabetise the countries in Europe	Learn and locate the seas of the world
	Sort countries from hot and cold	Draw your own world map	Map your journey from your home to another country- how much would it cost? How long would it take?	Use a compass to find out which way North is	Work out where the sun rises and sets in comparison to your home	Make an advert for a holiday destination- you choose where!